Smoky Mountain Coasterfest - An ACE Christmas Tradition

Story by Matt Lambert

The morning started bright and early with a chilly start. All attendees were asked to lend a hand to Dollywood and the local Sevier County Food Pantry by bringing cans of soup. This would be of great help to the community but also help the Dollywood Attractions Department compete against the Foods Department for bragging rights on the number of cans gathered. Many attendees brought cans and each of them was greatly appreciated.

We took the walk up the valley toward our morning ERT on Blazing Fury. We were greeted with 25th Anniversary lunch boxes, which contained muffins and coffee. They ran out before everyone was able to get one, but Dollywood never disappoints. They went and got more very quickly and apologized immensely. The morning ERT on Blazing Fury was a half hour spent in complete darkness. The other half had riders experience the ride with all the lights on. This gave a whole new perspective to the classic ride.

After the morning ERT, announcements were made and the soon-to-be famous Scavenger Hunt was distributed. Then we headed over to Dollywood's new attraction for 2010, which is Adventure Mountain. Attendees got front of the line access to enjoy it as long as they would like. After this was finished, people went on their way to either experience the park or work on the challenging scavenger hunt.

At one o'clock we all meet for a behind the scenes hard hat tour (minus the hard hat) of the new area being developed in the old Dreamland Forest area. We were able to see the new Bamstormer being worked on, which is an S&S Screaming Swing.

When darkness begins to fall in the hills of the Smokies, Dollywood becomes a Christmas wonderland full of beautiful decorations. There are lights on anything that will stand still and even on moving objects, like the parade and roaming characters. This was a time for many to enjoy the evening of Smoky Mountain Christmas at Dollywood and go eat at some of the favorite shops. The wide variety of treats is always enjoyed, whether it is a sit down meal, a full Christmas buffet, or a street vendor. People that participated turned in their Scavenger hunt answers and began their wait to see whether or not they would be the ultimate winner or come in last place.

As the park began to close, everyone met in the Lumbercamp Grill and was treated to the traditional "amazing" hot chocolate. The park had surprised us with three large sheet cakes decorated just for us. The cakes had roller coasters on them, and we were treated to a coffee bar that included syrups, chocolate sprin-

THE LAKE

Story by Robert Ulrich

The year 2010 saw a number of firsts, including the premier season of Lake WinneSPOOKah in Rossville, Georgia. Family-friendly Lake Winnepesaukah joined the Halloween theme park bandwagon on Friday and Saturday nights with a mixture of fun and frights. And Lake Winnie kept the celebration affordable with a ticket price of just $22 (and widely distributed a $2 off coupon).

After passing through the turnstiles, guests were greeted with a large area under an illuminated spider web. Around the edges were a number of frighteningly funny scenes such as a petting zoo of animal skeletons. The legend of the Lake was written out as “The Legend of Wet Winnie.”

Visitors got the idea that things were different this time of year. To aid visitors the frights fell into one of three categories, the most frightening marked with a skull as “not appropriate for ghouls under 12!”

The park’s train was one of these, transformed along the way with some standards of the haunted house biz; a chainsaw, body parts, etc. But while travelling the perimeter of the lake there were a couple of unique surprises we won’t spoil here – just go back next Halloween and see for yourself.

This first time effort showed a lot of work and ingenuity in the displays and use of current structures and rides. And for the park historians displays of old artifacts were a delightful treasure. Within the initial turn to the lift of the Cannonball were the original Mad Mouse cars. There up in a tree, was a Fly-0-Plane vehicle. And throughout were surprises and delights that made the warm October nights a great time to visit the lake.

All of the rides were open the night we attended, and the Cannonball is a great night ride that is not often available due to summer operation and darkness setting in late. But in October surrounded by darkness the coaster performed exceptionally well.

So, when summer 2011 is over and the leaves start to turn we’ll head to Lake WinneSPOOKah for a good time, again.

“When summer is over and leaves start to turn. As you come to Lake Winnie, this lesson you’ll learn. Be sure not to wander too close to the lake, where Wet Winnie died from the bite of a snake.”

kles, and whipped cream. The answers to the scavenger hunt were given out and just as mentioned; if you play you will win something. Everyone that played went home with something.

Dollywood attractions donated a huge lot of items for the auction to raise money for the National Roller Coaster Museum. A good majority of the items for sale were brought to raise money for the Food Pantry Canned Soup drive. The most coveted auction was for a coveted two person invite to attend media day for Barnstormer. This also included being the first ride out on media day. The group was able to raise over $500 for the soup drive.

Once the park closed, it was time for what everyone had been waiting for, ERT in the dark on one of the best wooden coasters and on of course on Mystery Mine. The day warmed up and was beautiful allowing ERT to be absolutely amazing, with no worries of closing due to temperatures. Not very often can you ride these two rides in darkness and be fortunate enough to have a perfect sky.

Overall it was a wonderful event to be a part of and the general consensus was all who came had a great time. What better way to get someone in the Christmas spirit than to come to Dollywood for Christmas in the Smokies. The icing on the cake was being with fellow ACE'ers and having an amazing time. Make sure if you did not come this year you mark your calendars. Smoky Mountain CoasterFest is November 19, 2011, and we're already thinking about ways to make it even better.

ACE'ers enjoy Adventure Mountain

CORRECTION!

In the last edition of The Southern Scream, Vice President & General Manager of Carowinds, Bart Kinzel, had his name misspelled due to a typo. ACE Southeast regrets this error and sends their apologies to Mr. Kinzel.

Give Kids The World has teamed up with Cedar Fair Parks and ACE in 2011 to present "Coasting For Kids 2011." Join ACE and your favorite Cedar Fair park on Sunday, July 24 and pledge to ride a roller coaster from 7:00am until 5:00pm (or at least as long as you can handle)! ## Saturday, April 2, 2011

ACE Southeast and Wild Adventures are raising the bar for the annual ACE Southeast event, Running Wild.

How does ERT on two great coasters sound? How about we throw in a photo scavenger hunt complete with a trophy for the winning team? Not good enough? Well then... let's top it off with a .38 Special AND a Charlie Daniels concert (both free with admission), priority placement of your personal chairs in the general seating area for both concerts, exclusive access to Splash Island Water Park with season pass holders, free parking, a meal voucher, bottomless soda wristbands, a pre concert reception with the general manager and an exclusive animal meet-n-greet.

Think that's "wild" enough for you? Well.. there's one more tidbit that's the wildest of them all. You get all of this for only $35 bucks. That's not a typo people - $35.00 for every ACE Member with or without a season pass and only $5 more for their guest. You can't beat a deal this good folks, so join us as we run wild at Wild Adventures!

Saturday, May 28, 2011

Join ACE Southeast as we head to "The South's Favorite Family Amusement Park", Lake Winnepesaukah on Saturday, May 28 for a full day of fun!

We're starting the day off with ERT on Cannon Ball and Wild Lightnin' followed by lunch, a mini golf tournament and much, much more! You'll also get the chance to ride the only known working Eyerly Fly-O-Plane in the United States and the oldest Shoot-the-Chutes ride still in operation, Boat Chute.

Also this year, the Carousel Association of America has scheduled their "Band Organ Rally" for the same weekend. Hearing and seeing these beautiful band organs playing seems like the perfect compliment to a traditional amusement park like Lake Winnie.

Step back in time with us to a place where the traditional amusement park is still alive and well!

Sunday, May 29, 2011

In 2010, we made Spring Fling the ultimate, no-miss, regional event and in 2011, we're upping the ante all over again!

This year Six Flags Over Georgia is pulling out all the stops for what will be a day full of surprises! How does 3 1/2 hours of ERT sound? How about a continental breakfast AND a nighttime reception complete with snacks and two drink coupons good for your choice of soda, water, beer or wine? If those aren't good enough, how about an invitation to the media day for Dare Devil Dive if you register by March 31?!?! See, we told you we were upping the ante and this isn't even all of it! There are tons more surprises in store for attendees, so what are you waiting for? Join ACE Southeast as we "dare" to tackle some of the Southeast's most "devilish" coasters during Spring Fling 2011!

The Brake Run

As I sit in my chair and listen to the cold wind blowing outside, I can't help but think of the warmer days ahead. Before too much longer we'll return to our favorite local parks to ride their best coasters and see what new goodies 2011 has in store for us. The Southeast is getting everything from a giant swing set to a new coaster and when you factor in some new water attractions at two parks and a million dollar light show at another one, it would appear that the Southeast was on Santa's nice list this past year!

Speaking of lists, there's one list that I never want to see anyone's name on... the "Expired Member" list. If your membership is up for renewal soon, consider giving us another year to wow you. Besides, if you don't, you're realllllly gonna beat yourself up after you see the slate of events that we have lined up for this year.

We're starting a brand new off season event called "Winter Warm Up." Why should the regions up North have all the fun when it's cold outside?! You can expect a day full of park presentations, goodie bags, a construction tour and lunch catered by the famous Atlanta restaurant "The Varsity." I can hear them shouting "What'll Ya Have?" already! We're also going back to Six Flags Over Georgia, Wild Adventures, Carowinds, Lake Winnie and Dollywood for our annual events there and we've included the event flyers for Winter Warm Up, Running Wild, ACE Day at Lake Winnie and Spring Fling in this edition of The Southern Scream. We hope to see you any (or all) of these great events this year!

Here's to a bright and prosperous 2011 from me to you (albeit a month or so late)!

Josh
